

Leading Supply Chain Publication Names Corcentric's Dave Lindeen as a Supply Chain 'Pro to Know'

1888PressRelease - Lindeen has been central to the development of a closed-loop commerce network that removes friction and risk from B2B transactions.

McLean, VA - Corcentric, a leading provider of financial process automation solutions, announced that Dave Lindeen, the company's Senior Vice President of Sales has been named a 2015 "Provider Pro to Know" by leading supply chain publication, Supply & Demand Chain Executive. Lindeen has played a central role in developing the company's CorConnect™ solution, a closed-loop B2B commerce network that helps companies with complex supply chains manage their order-to-cash processes.

"I am honored to be selected as a 'Pro to Know' by Supply & Demand Chain Executive," said Lindeen. "At Corcentric, our goal is to develop innovative solutions to simplify B2B transactions, from Accounts Payable to Accounts Receivable. Not only do our cloud-based systems reduce friction by streamlining and automating financial processes; they also give our customers full visibility into their transactions. . Plus, our robust analytics component enables Finance to plan and forecast with greater accuracy. Our domain expertise in both Procurement and Finance means that we understand the challenges our customers face and we can use this expertise to design solutions that answer their specific needs."

Each year, Supply & Demand Chain Executive recognizes 'Provider Pros to Know,' individuals from a software firm or service provider, consultancy, or academia who have helped their Supply Chain clients or the Supply Chain community prepare to face industry challenges. In referencing this year's list, the publication stated, "These outstanding executives and their accomplishments offer a roadmap for other leaders looking to leverage Supply Chain for competitive advantage. Their efforts in developing the tools, processes and knowledge base necessary for Supply Chain transformation, and in promoting new approaches to supply chain enablement, have earned them a place on this year's Pros listing."
